

Queensland Health requires businesses keep a register of contact details for all attendees on their premises to assist with contact tracing in the event of an outbreak.

The safety of our employees, supplier partners, customers, families and visitors remains Norseman’s overriding priority.

To prevent the spread of COVID-19 and reduce the potential risk of exposure to our workforce and visitors, we are conducting a simple screening questionnaire. Your participation is important to help us take precautionary measures to protect you and the community. Thank you for your time.

Disclaimer: Your contact information is being collected for the purpose of contact tracing in the event of positive COVID-19 diagnosis involving this business, as per the Queensland Chief Health Officer’s Restrictions on Businesses, Activities and Undertakings Direction (No. 4) (or its successor).

Your personal information will be stored securely and destroyed after 56 days, unless otherwise required by public health officials in the event of a Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. It will NOT be used for marketing or research purposes, given or sold to third parties.
